CNI among Top 20 Finalists for StarBiz-ICR Malaysia Corporate Responsibility Awards 2009

It was a proud moment when CNI was shortlisted as one of the top 20 finalists for the StarBiz-ICR Malaysia Corporate Responsibility Awards 2009.

The competition was stiff with 334 publiclisted companies vying for the four awards ie. Workplace, Environment, Community & Marketplace each under two categories (market capital) - Above RM1billion & Below RM1billion.

On hand to receive the finalist plaque was Chew Boon Swee, Executive Director, CNI Holdings Berhad. The plaque was presented by Datin Linda Ngiam, Managing Director cum Group CEO of The Star Publications (M) Bhd and witnessed by Datuk Johan Raslan, ICR Malaysia Chairman on 5 March 2010 at the awards presentation held at Nikko Hotel, Kuala Lumpur.

The award, into its second year, is a programme jointly organized by The Star Publications and the Institute of Corporate Responsibility Malaysia and supported by the Securities Commission and Bursa Malaysia. Its working partners are the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants, Pricewaterhouse-Coopers and the Securities Industry Development Corp.
